[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ROANOKE, VA., June 2.—The second of the series was won this afternoon in the seventh inning, by a score of 1 to 0 on a two-base hit by Kanzler, followed by three-base by Sandherr.

The game was beautifully played by both teams, the hits made off the respective pitchers being kept well scattered. Much dissatisfaction was manifested by both teams on account of the absence of an official umpire, Foley and Sparks acting in that capacity. In the opinion of many, this kept the game from going into extra innings by a close decision at the plate. Honors with the pitchers were about even, and each team pitched nearly full ball. The tabulated score:

TRUCKERS GET OFF WITH CREW

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, VA., June 2.—The Truckers took both games from the Crew to-day, outplaying and batting them at every stage of the game. It was a clean case of being in the races.

In the opening game Fox pitched fair ball, but was outclassed at all stages and was hit when they counted in the run column. All three of Portsmouth's runs were earned. In the second game Bertram was an easy mark, the errors of the Crew were costly, and after the bullpen action in the fifth the Portsmouth had a lead that could not be overcome.

The Crew had no showing, and Byron seemed to be aiding, as he chased Penner and Bonner for kicking in the second game. "Big boy" Cummings had to be sent in to relieve Bertram at the close of the fifth, but could not hold the Truckers down.

PINKOLA GETS LATONIA DERBY

CINCINNATI, O., June 2.—Pinkola, a chestnut gelding, owned by W. H. Fizer, won the twenty-second renewal of the Latonia Derby this afternoon in a drive by a length from Czar, with Ordone, a long shot, third. Keep Moving, the favorite in the race, was a poor last.

The pari-mutual system of betting was in vogue, and was very popular. Over $24,000 was wagered on the Derby alone. Track fast. Summaries: (First race—six furlongs—Wool Sandale ($12.25, place) second, Deuce ($25.50, place) third, Time, 1:12.4.5.

Second race—mile—Apache ($25.40, place) first, John Louis ($26.40, place) second, Buckey Brigade ($10.20, place) third, Time, 1:40.2.5.

Third race—five furlongs—W. A. Leach ($29, straight) first, Von Buelow ($106, place) second, Roseburg II. ($22.50, show) third, Time, 1:01.

Fourth race—Latonia Derby, one and one-half miles—Pinkola, 114, Minder ($22.50, straight) first, Czar, 114, Martin ($25, place) second, Ordone, 114, Pickens ($19.50, show) third, Time, 2:35.2.5. Honest, W. T. Overton, Sir Regales and Keep Moving also ran.

Fifth race—four and a half furlongs—Anne McGee ($21.70, straight) first, Ethelinda ($5.85, place) second, Alice ($32.50, show) third, Time, 5:1.

Sixth race—seven furlongs—Miss Alert ($15, straight) first, Convolv ($20.05, place) second, Miss Strome ($39.30, show) third, Time, 1:23.1-5.

WILL QUIT RACING.

NO. 111, MASS., June 2.—Barney Oldfield has driven his last automobile race, so he says. "Sunday night's accident was enough for me," he said. To show that he is earnest Oldfield has obtained employment as a chauffeur for H. W. Whipple, an Andover banker, whose only car is of thirty-horsepower, and probably could not go over thirty miles an hour.

Oldfield says he has cancelled all his racing engagements.

Record Balloon Trip.
ST. LOUIS, MO., June 2.—It is estimated, the balloon Chicago, which left Quincy last night, traveled 500 miles. Calculating that the balloon was in the air at least fourteen hours, it covered more distance in less time than the swiftest flight of any of the nine balloons that contested in the international balloon race, starting from here last October.

With a large gathering of spectators applauding the play, the fourth annual Old Dominion tennis tournament opened yesterday on the dirt courts of the Hermitage Club. The preliminaries in the men's singles were all played off, and also part of the first round.

While the first day served to weed out the less skilled players, at the same time some interesting matches were contested. To-day the best racket-wielders will begin contending and interest will be at a high pitch until Friday, when the finals are expected to take place.

The surprises of the day were the defeat of Mr. Faber by Mr. Pemberton and the defeat of Mr. Mullen by Mr. MacLachlan.

The first of the ladies' singles also created much interest. The exhibition of skill given by Mr. Bridges created considerable comment and he will doubtless be a contender for the honors. The match between him and Mr. James to-day should be a good one.

The results of the preliminaries are as follows: Mr. Pemberton beat Mr. Faber, 6-1.

Mr. MacLachlan beat Mr. Mullen, 11-9.

Mr. Hubbard beat Mr. Gregory, of Newport, N. H., 6-1, 6-2.

Mr. Hallenger, of Washington, beat Mr. Bladwell, 6-3, 6-4.

Mr. Whitlock beat Mr. Wiggs by default.

In the ladies' singles all the sets were interesting and resulted as follows: Miss Harris beat Miss Lancaster, 6-2.

Miss Cooke beat Miss Meredith, 6-3.

Miss Powers beat Miss Winston, 7-5.

Miss Wingo beat Mrs. Coke, 6-4, 6-2.

Miss Crump beat Miss Blair, 7-0, 6-5.

Again we won.
By fast yielding and hits at opportune times.

Riggs landed for his regular hit. Seven hits and no runs. Yesterday's attendance was 600. We have more colored people than that in our bleachers.

Riggs and Sandherr both landed for a three-bagger. Foley and Pitcher Sparks acted as umpires yesterday in the first game. "Pop" Shaffer's bunch of Highlanders will be here to-day for two games. "Rube" Howard has won the last three games he pitched. Keep it up, old boy!

Harry Mace says he is feeling better, and will be able to umpire this morning's game. In the seventh Kanzler hits for a two-bagger, and then Little Sandherr comes up and knocks a three-bagger, scoring the only run.

A five hit team by Kanzler and one each by Lipe, Riggs and Sandherr. With two new catchers and two new pitchers somebody will have to go. We have played four errorless games straight along. What do you know about that for good fielding?

Here is a funny little thing that happened Monday. A man came in third for Augusta and the game was tied. Valdois came up and made a safe hit to centre, and forgot to run. In the meantime the man on third, running home, but Valdois had gone to the bench and was thrown out at first. His absent-mindedness cost the game.

Two games. At 1:30 and 4:30. Here's luck to the Lawmakers. Watch that Portsmouth team—two from their rivals yesterday.

Bobby Valdois the man on third, running home, but Valdois had gone to the bench and was thrown out at first. His absent-mindedness cost the game.
